

Professor of Military Science (Battalion Commander)

Responsible for the supervision and mission accomplishment of the Cadet Command Battalion. Primary duties include enrollment officer responsible for targeted recruiting, developing leaders, and retaining quality prospects for future service in the U.S. Arm. Performs duties as academic department/division chairperson; deals with the local and campus communities in areas pertaining to the U.S. Army. Additionally, responsible for the battalion's internal management control program, cadet contract and pay entitlements, budget and unit funds. Acts as the battalion's test control officer and military affairs advisor to officers in the degree completion program. Primary unit recruiter, retention officer, and advisor to the MSL IV (Senior) cadets. Performs other duties as required in support of the Cadet Command Mission.